

Media Release

- Search for excellence in safety brings dual cachet for REL.
- 6th Greentech Safety Gold Award to REL's Power Plants at Dahanu and Goa.

Mumbai, 23rd February 2007: REL's Dahanu and Goa power stations have bagged the prestigious Greentech Safety Gold Award for year 2006 in thermal and gas power category respectively.

The award was presented to the company by Mr. Tony Smith of the National Safety Council, USA in a function held in Mumbai on 22nd February 2007.

Reliance Energy Limited (REL) is leaving no stone unturned to achieve excellence in all its key result areas of its operations. REL recognizes safety as one of such crucial key result areas. REL's search for excellence in safety is now getting wide recognition, as its both power plants have been conferred on the prestigious Greentech Safety Gold Award for year 2006.

Dahanu Thermal Power Station and Goa Power Station are ISO 14001 certified and have also won various prestigious awards that include the Greentech Foundation Award in Environment for year 2005 and 2006 and 2006 respectively.

"Greentech Safety Award" is presented to Organizations / Companies and Individuals by the Greentech Foundation, a non profit organization engaged in the field of established to promote education, training, research and dissemination of knowledge, advancing the scientific, technical and practical aspects of wastes management and climate change to safeguard environment. The Foundation presents the award in various fields like environment to the organizations / companies and / or individuals for their outstanding achievements in that respective field.

Reliance Energy Limited:

Reliance Energy, a part of Reliance - Anil Dhirubhai Ambani Group, is India's leading private sector utility group, with aggregate estimated group revenues of Rs 10,500 crore (US$ 2.3 billion), and total assets of Rs 10,800 crore (US$ 2.4 billion).

The group distributes nearly 21 billion units of power to over 5 million consumers in Mumbai, Delhi, Orissa and Goa, across an area covering 1,24,300 sq. Kms.

Reliance Energy generates 941 MW of power, through its power plants located in Maharashtra, Andhra Pradesh, Kerala, Karnataka and Goa.

Reliance Energy is ranked amongst India's top 20 listed private companies in terms of all major financial parameters, including assets, sales, profits and market capitalisation.